

Assistant Golf Course Superintendent (3/2/23)

Escondido Golf & Lake Club

As a part of the Escondido team, the Assistant Golf Course Superintendent is held to a high level of excellence.

Our purpose is to exceed the expectations for our Members and their guests by providing excellent golf course conditions consistently. We strive to make our Members and their guests feel special by anticipating their needs and providing the best possible golfing experience. Service is our absolute dedication.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Establishes work schedules of golf course maintenance

Maintain our greens in tournament condition daily, reflective of our reputation.

Supervise and participate when necessary, in mowing greens, tees, fairways, and

Perform and/or manage periodic maintenance practices such as topdressing, aeration, and vertical mowing.

Perform and/or manage course setup: change cups, move markers, maintain ropes and signage as needed.

Manage and/or maintain the details on the course: pick up tree limbs, leaves, maintain cart paths.

Maintain irrigation systems and learn the Toro Lynx

Train, manage, and/or operate powered equipment such as mowers, tractors, chainsaws, and sod cutters.

Performs other duties as assigned or

Fertilize and pesticide applications using computerized sprayers, tractor-drawn fertilizer spreaders, and walking spreaders.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

Minimum 4 years of experience at a golf

Must have a post-secondary 2- or 4-year degree in golf course management or related

Proven ability to manage others and finish tasks

Valid driver's license.

Self-starter with the ability to follow-through and complete assignments in a timely

Strong work

Currently holds a pesticide applicators license for your current state. Must obtain a Texas pesticide applicators license within 6 months.

NOTES:

Additional Salary Information: Commensurate with experience.

About Escondido Golf & Lake Club

Escondido Golf & Lake Club in Horseshoe Bay, Texas just northwest of Austin) founded in 2006. Golf course is a Tom Fazio design. Escondido is offering an exceptional opportunity for individuals with a proven record of success in a leadership role of high-quality golf course maintenance in private clubs . This individual's role will be to deliver the "Escondido Experience" each and every day which is the core of the Club.

Application: Send resume to Tony Mancuso at tmancuso@eglc.org