

MECHANIC SUPERVISOR

Under the general supervision of the Director of Agronomy, responsible to service, maintain and overhaul a variety of gasoline, diesel and electric powered equipment. Perform very difficult and exacting tasks, which require highly skilled and accurate manual operations involving coordinated performance, which must be to close adjustments and dimension limits. Plan, perform and at times direct work where only general methods of produce are available. Requires considerable ingenuity, initiative and judgment for correct action. May supervise one or more assigned employees. Must possess a valid driver's license.

- Diagnose causes of trouble without dismantling equipment.
- Dismantle, repair, construct and maintain machinery and equipment with a high degree of skill.
- Grind, back lapp, face, set and adjust bed-knives and reels to ensure perfect mowing conditions.
- Understand the operation and working parts of internal combustion engines.
- Understand the working properties of such metal as brass, aluminum, electric arc, forge and other equipment with a high degree of skill.
- Knowledge of dimensions and uses of standard nuts, bolts, screws and threads.
- Assist in maintaining proper parts inventory.
- Proper storage of all chemicals, lubricant, etc.
- Maintain accurate record keeping of parts replaced, work performed and time spent on each piece of equipment.
- Perform preventative maintenance all equipment to ensure safety.
- Maintain equipment detailing program.
- Follow budgeted guidelines in purchasing parts and accessories.
- Comply with company safety policies and procedures to include accurate MSDS information.
- Work from oral instructions, blueprints, written specifications and/or sketches.
- Perform duties with due regard for safety of self and fellow employees while exercising proper care and protection of company property.
- Wear issued uniforms and nametag at all times.
- All other duties assigned.

Salary: DOE

Please send resumes to: Allen Plagens

Aplagens@canongategolf.com