

Golf Course Superintendent

Golf Course (Overview)

Owned and operated by the City of Pharr, Texas, Tierra Del Sol is an 18-hole municipal golf course and driving range. Spread over 120 acres and intertwined with a residential subdivision, it caters to all golfers of all ability levels. Has 4 sets of tees measuring from 5252 yards to 6827 yards. During peak season (November – March) an extra set of tees are added to accommodate a large Winter Texan population. The course currently does 33,000 rounds of golf annually.

Maintenance Highlights

- Greens – California Style Greens Bermuda
- Tees/Fairways – Bermuda
- Numerous ponds through the golf course
- Lighted driving range and short game area
- Hunter irrigation system with roughly 1000 heads.
- Water source is effluent from the City of Pharr
- Year-round staff includes Golf Course Superintendent, Foreman, Equipment Mechanic, Irrigation Technician, and 8 groundskeepers.

Other Functions

- Self-Starter, Teacher and Motivator
- Fluent in Spanish a plus
- Ability to lead a team.
- Sound written and verbal communication skills.
- Experience with warm season turf
- Currently possess a pesticide applicator license or the ability to obtain one in 90 days.
- Ability to source and hire team members as required.

Compensation Package

- Annual salary $44K
- Standard city employment benefits including health insurance, retirement, vacation, sick days, etc.
- Golf Course Superintendent reports to the Golf Course Manager.

Resumes:

Send to Michael Fernuik, PGA at michael.fernuik@pharr-tx.gov. Future information is available at pharr-tx.gov under the tab “job opportunities”.